NOT merely for the learning we have gained within your walls.

Or for the warmth and fellowship resounded through your halls.

Not only for the welcomed help and guiding hand of those Whose conscientious job it was, knowledge to disclose.

Not merely for the memories we've gained throughout the year.

Or for the happy times we've had that somehow still adhere.

No, not just for these but for something more.
For the spirit of friendliness that remains evermore

A beacon to those who in years hence succeed us.

Let it thus be forever a pathway to lead us.

The Directors

PRINCIPAL

B-H activities, which sometimes resemble a three-ring circus more than a three-act play, were under the direction of I. R. (Mike) Metzler, principal.

His duties ran the gamut of helping a freshman schedule his classes to wrestling the problems of major constructions.

As a former athlete, coach and classroom teacher, the "man in the gray suit" had the ability to see all sides of the administrative problems.

Bernard (Gene) Freese became a familiar figure in the office as he assumed his position as vice-principal. He also served as head football coach and assisted in other sports.

DIRECTOR'S STAFF INCREASES

With a total of sixty-seven classes being taught, in fourteen fields of study, Beaverton's ever-increasing faculty had a busy year. New instructors this year were: Miss Elaine Hayden, Mrs. Marcia Anderson, Mrs. Molly Lou Stouffer, Miss Arlene Peterson, Mr. Duane Moore, Mr. Ted Van Buren, Mr. and Mrs. Art Bakke and Mr. Gerald Baker.

Miss Geraldine Sanford, head of the English department, was again director of the adult education program, which held classes every Monday evening.

Teaching his twenty-fifth year at B. H. S., speech department head E. G. Webb still turned out winners.

The "Little Theater" became the center of talent, being shared by Mrs. Duncan's girls' glee club and choir, Mr. Webb's speech department, and the dramatics class, the first in ten years, directed by Mrs. Molly Lou Stouffer.

Mrs. Frances Cook, substitute teacher, became a familiar figure to students at B. H. S. as she filled in during the absence of faculty members.

Social events included the marriage of Miss Claire Sering to Mr. Harold Ritchie, Miss Marcia Schmeiser to Mr. Robert Anderson, and Miss Vera Mason to Mr. Elmer Cress.

The faculty's support in all school activities helped make the year an outstanding one.

THE BACKSTAGE STAFF WAS BUSY

More students, more work seems to be the motto of our friendly and efficient secretary, Mrs. Evelyn McGill, who has just finished her seventh year at Beaverton High School Assisting her with such duties as making out absence slips and helping students arrange their schedules is Mrs. Letha Turner, school board clerk and secretary to Mr. Metzler. Information about where to find your best friend, forgotten locker combinations, and lost articles may be secured from these people behind the big desk.

Completion of the new gym, purchase of school busses, enlargement of parking facilities, and purchase of lab tables have been just a few of the problems the school board has met and solved in this busy year of expansion at B. H. S. These progressive men have merited the deep appreciation of both students and faculty.

CAFETERIA CAPTURES INTERMISSION SPOTLIGHT

With the addition of a sixty cubic foot refrigerator, an electric potato peeler, and bake ovens Beaverton's cafeteria became one of well-balanced meals and excellent service

A line of 125 people can be served in fifteen minutes and the cafeteria is equipped to handle a maximum of 400. The national school lunch program contributes four and one-half cents to each meal to insure the best possible lunch

Of great popularity was the snack bar which served soft drinks, ice cream and candy under the supervision of Mrs. Luella Day

The cafeteria staff was capably headed by Mrs. Mary Burkett and Mrs. Olga Schurman. Assisting were Georgia and Jamesetta Burkett, Kristine Nelson, Betty Morris, Joanne Stout, Roberta Martin, Larry Loar, Ed Zurflueh, and Dick Wise

THE SCHOOL BUILDING

STUDENTS IN THE CAFETERIA

THE CLASSROOM

ALL THE WORLD'S A STAGE . . .

ACCORDING to Noah Webster a stage is "the platform on which the actors perform; also the scene of action." The stage of the school is the classroom where a student spends eight hours a day, five days a week for nine months out of the year. This means that before one graduates from high school, he has spent well over four thousand seven hundred hours in a classroom. It would be impossible to show the whole day, even in one hundred pages. In these few pages, the Beaver staff has tried to show a cross section of the action of the school.

Nineteen fifty will be remembered as one of the most enjoyable for the audiences of the girls' glee club.

and many songs from "South Pacific." To enliven the program, the girls gave their rendition of how three different groups of people would interpret the song "Bali Hai." Among other notable performances were the Y-Teen Thanksgiving program, the Christmas Concert and the main highlight of the year, the Spring Concert presented on April 27.

The girls' glee club consisting of approximately forty members is capably directed by Mrs. Eleanor Duncan. One of the most welcomed surprises for the glee club was the completion of the Little Theater which made possible the first room large enough for rehearsal. The Theater also boasts a spanking new spinet piano.

Beaverton again participated in the annual District Music Tournament at Newberg, where they competed with various schools in the surrounding area and made a fine showing as in previous years.

FRESHMEN ARE INITIATED IN SONG

Learning the know-how of group singing under the direction of Mrs. Eleanor Duncan, were the forty-two freshmen chorus members. In addition to singing, the class studied music theory, general music, and the art of music appreciation.

The activities of the chorus included participation in the Spring and Christmas Concerts. Jolly Ditzler took the solo role in both of these performances. Talent shows in which freshmen chorus members performed were held in class every two weeks.

The original number of members dwindled during the year as some freshmen were promoted to the choir.

SPEECH STUDENTS COP THE CUPS

Speech students under the direction of E. G. Webb, veteran coach, captured 6 first places in interscholastic competition this year.

Participating in tournaments at Linfield College, Willamette University, and the district speech tournament held at McMinnville, the talk artists gave a good account of themselves. Award winners this year were Georgia Burkett, Barry Eastham, Bob Ervin, Sharon Drake, Sandra Williams, Dick Hall, and Diane Schendel.

Those qualifying for the state tournament were Dick Hall, panel discussion; Diane Schendel, oratory; Georgia Burkett, poetry reading and Bob Ervin, after-dinner speaking.

WE'RE ALL IN IT: THE BEAVER THAT IS

'I'm in it, you're in it, we're all in it,' was the motto of the 1951 Beaver staff.

Starting off the campaign of selling annuals this year, the staff presented their annual assembly which was called "Truth or Annoyance" with Craig Knutsen as master of ceremonies.

The Journalism Conference at the University of Oregon gave the Beaver staff new ideas to add to their book.

The Beaver staff is grateful to the entire Student Body and faculty for their cooperation and a special thanks to the photography class.

Leading the staff this year was Pat Hanley with Phyllis Palmrose and Joanne Day as assistant editors, Ray DeYoung, business manager, with Joan Hall and Jerry Howell as assistants. Other members of the staff were Arlene Murthy, George Pappas, Adair Enger, Audrey Enger, Kenneth Alexander, Beverly Johnson, Gloria Rawles, Joanne Ferguson, Craig Knutsen, Tim Clark and Lavelle Flannery.

Mrs. Claire Ritchie and Miss Bernice Conoly were advisors.

NEW ACTIVITIES IN G. A. A. PROGRAM

Sports parties in bowling, ice skating, roller skating, swimming and volleyball provided not only amusement, but essential service points for G. A. A. members

President Kathleen Kennish was assisted by Mona Lee Gosselin, vice president, in planning the various programs. Gabe Ghiglietti was secretary; Lorraine served as treasurer; and the important job of sports manager was held by June Steele

The club, which is open to every girl in school, had a booming membership of 165 in 1950-51.

The club was divided into twelve groups, each under the direction of a squad leader. The twelve squad leaders are Kay Bader, Marilyn Thompson, Joan Hamilton, Bertie Pointer, Nancy Shortridge, Joanne Ferguson, Pat Schlaht, Lucille Wright, LaVonne Hiller, Shirley Van Hynning, and Marcian Kuhn

Squads took on various duties such as selling tickets for the Halloween dance and for the various skating parties

Advisors were Miss Elaine Hayden, Mrs. Sylvia Gilbert, and Mrs. Marjorie Whitbeck

JUNIOR RED CROSS PLAYS BENEFACTOR ROLE

Assembling an album giving an accurate description of the daily life of an average Beaverton student was only one of the numerous activities in which the Junior Red Cross council engaged this year. The group, always active, began in the fall by attending a conference in Longview, Wash.

One of the main social events of the year was the annual Sadie Hawkins dance sponsored by Junior Red Cross.

The council, during the year, also engaged in a number of projects to prepare boxes for people in Europe. Making Christmas decorations for hospitals was another project. Amazing as it may seem, the council made its necessary funds for these activities by merely selling Beaver decals.

B.H.S. WILL MISS ITS STAR

In his final year at Beaverton, Jim Tsugawa had one of the most brilliant seasons of his career.

He led the T. Y. V. League in scoring, and, in addition to being Beaver captain and T. Y. V. captain, he was selected to play in the annual Shriner all star game.

The fame Jim has acquired through his athletic brilliance has not been confined to Beaverton High, but has spread over the league and the state.

Jim skirts end for TD.

GRID TEAM COMPLETES WINNING SEASON

With more prowess and spirit than in previous years the 1950 Beaver football squad emerged from a tough nine-game schedule with a record of 7 wins to 2 losses.

Although losing heart-breakers to bitter rivals, Hillsboro and Oregon City, the team ran up such scores as a 55-0 lacing to inept Forest Grove.

The discovery and development of players Ed Ramsdell, Deane Leverett, Ernie Zwahlen, Dick Bowman, Chuck Holland and Mel Henson helped the Beavers to their stellar position in the T. Y. V. League.

There will be many veterans back next year so the coaching staff is looking forward to a victorious season that will end with a 9-0 record instead of 7-2.

JV'S RECORD FORETELLS BRIGHT FUTURE

The Beaver football team's last line of defense, the Baby Beavers, renewed efforts with a will this fall and developed into a well-rounded eleven before the end of the season.

The B squad can attribute some of its success to such players as Larry Loar and Ron Mercer, who performed in a well-rounded backfield and Mel Henson, Bob Rasmussen and Bill Tri, who showed a good line game.

Ending the season with a record of 3 wins and 3 losses, the J.V.'s showed an inclination of power in almost all of its contests, which included a 34-0 win over Forest Grove.

THE RACKET GROUP WINS MANY

Tennis stepped into the limelight this year and produced one of the better showings of minor sports in Beaverton High. Although losing some of his better players by graduation, Coach Bill See was determined to mold a good team and came up with a few better than average players. Among these were transfer Dick Drake and his brother Don, who were instrumental in many of the team's successes.

Lettermen were Charles Coslett, Dan Steele, Bill Byrd, Dick Drake, Bob Drake, Bob Hunt, and John Comer.

BULL'S EYE IS THE GOAL

With a club membership of twenty boys, the Beaverton high Rifle club set forth this year with the purpose of providing interesting material and instruction for the boys who are marksmanship fans.

Competition matches were held this year with the Hill Rifle club and various National Guard companies.

The Club practices at the Hillsboro rifle range and is proud of its many fine marksmanship awards won through the diligent practice of its members.

Members who are lettermen are: Ron Renner, Gene Walters, Arvid Matson, and Howard Crabhorn.

BEAVERS DARKHORSE IN TOURNEY PLAY

A SLOW start and a blazing finish marked the league efforts of the 1951 Beaver varsity basketball team. Coached by capable Ted Harding, the team completed the prescribed T. Y. V. schedule with a record of 4 wins against 10 losses. Among these wins was a 56-55 overtime upset of the West Linn Lions on our home floor.

Co-captains Bill Bernhardt and Ed Zurflueh proved to be the stalwarts of the team. Ed ended regular T. Y. V. play with an average of 11.6 points per game and was the team's leading scorer.

Bill Bernhardt was the team's top scorer in the regular season. He scored 10 points in the game of the Beavers. Although he was scoring proficiently, Bill was the top man in rebounds and time and time out management in the team's scoring drive.

The team entered the District 9 A basketball tournament as the team most likely to be eliminated from competition. With Hill High and Forest Grove rated as favorites, the Beavers lost Tigard 40-38, outscored Forest Grove 47-36, but lost, however, to Hillsboro 57-47. The team went on again to meet Forest Grove 57-47 and the chance to advance to the state tournament seemed in the offing. In the defeat of Hillsboro the only team to make it. The two-game series with Hillsboro resulted in one win and one loss. The team lost Hillsboro to state. The team's state tourney berth. Beaverton was a very skilled team throughout the season.

THE BALL WAS IN THE AIR

JUNIOR B-MEN PROMISE BRIGHT FUTURE

A season's record of 9 wins against 5 losses, produced a .636 percentage for this year's B squad. High scorers were Bob Lee with 129 and Dick Bowman with 117.

Hoop mentor Ted Harding is placing his hopes on these players since 1951 will take its toll in graduation of varsity stalwarts. "Gene" Freese coached the J-Vs.

Displaying sound basketball sense, Frosh Coach Duane Moore guided his boys to a 13-1 win record and the first league championship in B. H. S. freshman history.

This year's rook squad showed an admirable ability to work as a unit and at the same time to deliver scoring punch.

Beaver Baseballers Play Rough Schedule

Rounding into form late in the season because of the usual hindrances of not having a home field and being held up by the rain when they did get a chance to practice, the 1950 Beavers won three straight to end a string of eight defeats in a row

Bad luck plagued the home clan throughout the season. In the McMinnville game on their home field they were beaten in the last inning after supporting a marvelous no-hit performance by stellar flinger Norman Haines. But the boys proved their Beaverton spirit by overcoming these difficulties in the latter stages of the league race

THE EXERCISE WAS EXCELLENT

Bad luck, partially due to lack of practice, followed the girls' volleyball team, which lost all its games.

Perhaps the best game was the last one with Tigard when the girls lost by a small margin. The schools played were Hillsboro and Sherwood.

Coaches were Coach Hayden, A-Squad, and Mrs. Sylvia Gilbert, B-Squad. Kathryn [unclear] and Joanne Ferguson were scorers.

Two of the most outstanding bowlers were Beverly Johnson and Miss Elaine Hayden advisor. They managed to rack up 175 and 176 respectively

Others who maintained high averages were Kathleen Kennish, Gloria Rawles and Kay Bader

Officers of the group were Phyllis Palmrose, president; Marje Keehn, secretary; and Marilyn [redacted] treasurer

Beaverton's one-girl swimming team, Lavelle Flannery, senior, has held her own among city, state, and interstate competition. Lavelle has been swimming since she was five. Beginning competition in the eighth grade, Lavelle has won 17 trophies. This year she won firsts in both the 220-yard free style and the 100-yard free style. Her swimming has taken her to Canada, San Francisco and Seattle. Lavelle's main ambition is to swim the English Channel.

GYM LEADERS

Keeping the cage in order is the duty of the gym leaders. Cooking food and gym clothes and handing out clean towels keep them busy. The leaders are elected by the members of their classes two for each of the morning classes and three for each of the larger afternoon classes.

POSTLUDE

*A*ND now we part the curtains to say . . .
We have tried to capture a portion
Of this year's memories in our drama . . .
If in your course of scanning these pages
One remembrance is brought to mind
Our purpose is achieved.
Even though our paths may lead us away
From Beaverton
Our school days will remain forever
Cherished memories.

Don't just wish it.
Wish it with a plan.
Wish it with a goal.
Wish it with a purpose.
Wish it with a prayer.

To Russell guy.
I sure wish I could have known you better.
Someday
I will.
